b. the maximum size of LED/LCD TV that shall be acceptable for carriage is 139.7 centimetres including the cartons.

c. Carriage of TVs shall also be governed by other applicable terms and conditions contained in the Conditions of Carriage regarding carriage of fragile items, etc.

a. Photographic equipment and films can be carried in Hand Baggage or in Checked-in Baggage.

b. Baggage containing photographic equipment and films shall be screened through the X-ray baggage inspection system ("BIS"). To avoid any damage to the undeveloped photographic film by X-ray BIS, Customers are advised to carry only the processed photographic films.

c. However, on Customer's request, Kohinoor may also permit the Baggage with photographic equipment and film to be screened manually for which the Customer may be required to remove the film from the canister and pack the same in a clear plastic bag for further examination.

a. Carriage of firearm, air gun or ammunition by a Customer (whether as Hand Baggage or as Checked-in Baggage) is strictly prohibited on Kohinoor's ATR carriers.

b. Subject to the above-mentioned restriction, and except as otherwise provided in the Conditions of Carriage, Kohinoor will charge applicable fees set forth www.KohinoorAirlines.com/policy, for every fire arm, air gun or ammunition carried by a Customer (inclusive of GST, if applicable) for additional services provided for handling and carriage of firearm, air gun or ammunition in his/her Checked-in Baggage.

Subject to the conditions specified below, Kohinoor may permit carriage of firearms and/ or ammunition, without charging any fee, in the following cases:

- a. Personnel from the armed forces and the police forces required to carry their arms or ammunition in connection with the performance of their duties must have a movement order from their unit commander or his/her authorised representative. The weapons and ammunition carried in the Checked-in Baggage must be declared to Kohinoor and the arms and ammunition shall be packed securely, as prescribed under applicable law; or
- b. A sportsperson traveling on a flight operated by Kohinoor on a domestic sector, in order to participate in a shooting event within India, for which he/ she is allowed to carry cartridges not exceeding gross weight of 5 kilogram, such sportsperson may be permitted by Kohinoor to carry the requisite number of licensed firearms and/ or ammunition in his Checked-in Baggage subject to the following conditions:

The sportsperson is required to make declarations in writing in relation to the carriage of firearms or ammunition, and producing the following documents at the security check point of Checked-in Baggage for inspection by the screener of Kohinoor:

- valid license or authorization of firearms and ammunition in name of the sportsperson or an accompanying Customer.
- evidence of identity which can be established by a photo identity card issued by a government agency or a sponsoring sports club.
- bonafide carriage of arms and ammunitions on the basis of a written document issued by the president or secretary of the sports club sponsoring him/her for the shooting event.
- The firearm must be unloaded. The firearm must be carried in a hard-sided container, and the container must be locked.
- The ammunition must be securely packed in fibre (such as cardboard), wood or metal boxes or other packaging specially designed to carry small amounts of ammunition. The packaging should be completed in a manner that minimizes the chances of accidents, if any. Fire-arm magazines or clips do not satisfy the packaging requirement unless they provide a complete and secure enclosure of the ammunition.
- The ammunition may also be located in the same hard sided case as the firearm, as long as it is properly packed as described above.
- Black powder and percussion caps used with black powder type firearms are not permitted to be carried as a Hand Baggage or Checked-in Baggage.

- Carriage of fire arms shall be permitted for other Customers by Kohinoor, subject to the provision by such Customer of the copies of all the relevant clearances and permissions as required by Regulatory Authorities under applicable laws, to the satisfaction of Kohinoor.

A firearm or ammunition is not permitted to be carried on person or in the Hand Baggage and should be carried only as Checked-in Baggage. However, firearm or ammunition can be carried as Checked-in Baggage after providing a written declaration to Kohinoor in the form provided by Kohinoor, provided that such firearm is unloaded and securely packaged separately from the ammunition and is carried in accordance with the provisions of the Aircraft Rules, 1937, Aircraft (Carriage of Dangerous Goods) Rules, 2003 and the ICAO Technical Instructions. Any Customer, found carrying firearm or ammunition in contravention to the above, would be in violation of applicable law. In such a case, Kohinoor will file a criminal complaint against the Customer with appropriate authority and such Customer shall be off-loaded.

Standard excess Baggage charges shall apply if the free Baggage allowance is exceeded due to carriage of such weapons or ammunition.

a. Customers are strongly advised not to check-in such items as Checked-in Baggage which by their very nature are valuable or fragile. If such items are checked-in as Checked-in Baggage, Customers agree to carriage of such items, at their own risk and cost. Such items include, without limitation, currency, jewellery, silverware, glassware, medicines, perishable goods, computers, computer software, phones, cameras, video equipment, any other electronic equipment, negotiable instruments, title documents, certificates, securities, bonds, business and personal documents, samples, paintings, artefacts, manuscripts, other works of art, antiques, research material, unique or irreplaceable items, scholarship items or documents, irreplaceable books or publications, passport, or other similar valuable documents or items.

b. Items mentioned in the clause above are not covered under any compensation for loss or damage policy of Kohinoor under the Conditions of Carriage. It is the sole responsibility of the Customer not to keep these items in Checked-in Baggage.

c. Kohinoor shall not be responsible and liable for any damage or loss etc. for any such items carried by Customers in their Checked-in Baggage. In case, a Customer's Checked-in Baggage is spoilt due to spillage or leakage of glass bottles or jars unsuitably packed, Kohinoor shall not be liable for the same.
